MINNESOTA FOOTBALL WIN CAUSES HOCKEY TOURNAMENT SHUFFLE

Barring a double Harvard victory the final of the Fourth Annual Loyola of Montreal Centennial College Hockey Tournament will be played on Monday evening January 5th at 8.00 p.m. at the Montreal Forum.

However, if Harvard were to defeat McGill on Friday night and then defending tournament and national champions, the University of Toronto on Saturday, the championship game would be played as originally scheduled at 1.30 p.m. at the Forum. Harvard cannot play on Monday because of academic regulations.
